

A RADICAL JOURNEY

STANZA I

GENESIS/CREATION

Let's begin at the beginning.

But what if there is

No beginning....

What if we

Ebb and flow

Like the tide,

Moving in and out

Of Life

(As we understand it)

(Though mostly we don't),

Moving in and out of the

Duality

Of the physical plane

From the

Existence of All,

Learning and growing,

Each individual soul

Part of the greater whole,

Shined and Burnished
To a gleam
That sometimes
(In some lifetimes)
Is seen and
Sometimes not....

What if we are
As we think of
The enormity of God,
But manifested as Single
Drops of rain,
Some fat, some thin...
Some falling with a
Splat,
Some barely
Touching the ground
(That we think of as solid
But isn't)
Before evaporating...

STANZA II

KARMA

What if We understood
Karma;
What if
We realized at a
Visceral level that we Accumulate and Carry with us from
One lifetime to another the Consequences of Actions,
Thoughts,
Deeds in our personal-life Karma
And our
Karmic relationships....

What if we Choose
How we are to be...
Create

Color, size, gender,
Astrology,
Brain function and capacity,
Journey, agenda,
Karma,
Location in
Time
And space,
Along with Culture and Belief system,
And add each
Lifetime of Experience
To our souls
Like
Sparkling diamond beads
On a golden chain....

What if
We knew that
In one lifetime/time/space we might

Choose to be

Ruler,

Tyrant,

Oppressor,

Murderer,

Torturer/terrorist,

Vainglorious and self-righteous, but in

Another lifetime/time/space

We'd need to choose to be

Peasant,

Hungry,

Oppressed under a

Yoke of tyranny,

Victim of abuse or

Murder or Torture,

In order to balance

Experience....

What if

Through the laws of

Duality,

We knew that by choosing

One

We would by

Default

Choose the other.....

Would we be different?

Could we be

Different?

Should we be

Different?

What if

We could see in our

Patterns

That we repeat cycles in both a

Single lifetime and a

Group of lifetimes... and

What if

We could break a

Karmic cycle?

Choosing

One thing over another alters

Everything....

How and what would we wish to Change?

What if

We could perceive that the

Golden Rule –

“Treat others as you would be Treated” –

Passes through

Multiple lives....

Would we find the

Courage

To live it?
